

I believe that the FCC should NOT make it easier for a small group of companies to own more media outlets and in a single market. What the general public is able to see and hear is already limited by the control of a few large media companies. Let's not make a bad thing worse.